(xiii) as of (A) the applicable Addition Cut-Off Date with respect to the Receivables then existing in each Additional Account which have been conveyed to Chase Card Funding by JPMCB and (B) the date of the creation of each new Receivable conveyed to Chase Card Funding by JPMCB, each such Receivable constitutes an “account” within the meaning of the applicable UCC;

(xiv) as of (A) the applicable Addition Cut-Off Date with respect to the Receivables then existing in each Additional Account owned by JPMCB and (B) the date of the creation of any new Receivable transferred to Chase Card Funding by JPMCB, such Receivable is an Eligible Receivable;

(xv) on the Addition Cut-Off Date, with respect to Additional Accounts owned by JPMCB, no selection procedures believed by JPMCB to be materially adverse to the interests of the Noteholders have been used in selecting such Accounts; and

(xvi) on each applicable Increase Date with respect to the Collateral Certificate which is to have its Invested Amount increased, such Collateral Certificate is an Eligible Collateral Certificate.

(b) Notice of Breach. The representations and warranties set forth in Section 2.03 and this Section 2.04 shall survive the transfers and assignments of the Collateral Certificates and the Receivables to Chase Card Funding under this Agreement, the transfers and assignments of the Collateral Certificates and the Receivables to the Issuing Entity pursuant to the Transfer and Servicing Agreement, the pledge of the Collateral Certificates and the Receivables to the Collateral Agent pursuant to the Asset Pool One Supplement, and the issuance of the Notes. Upon discovery by JPMCB or the Indenture Trustee of a breach of any of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 2.03 or this Section 2.04, the party discovering such breach shall give prompt written notice to Chase Card Funding following such discovery.

Section 2.05. Representations and Warranties of Chase Card Funding. Chase Card Funding hereby represents and warrants to JPMCB as of the Closing Date, and as of each Issuance Date, each Increase Date and each Addition Date hereafter that:

(b) Due Qualification. Chase Card Funding is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing (or is exempt from such requirement) in any state required in order to conduct business, and has obtained all necessary licenses and approvals with respect to Chase Card Funding required under federal law; provided, however, that no representation or warranty is made with respect to any qualifications, licenses or approvals which Chase Card Funding would have to obtain to do business in any state in which Chase Card Funding seeks to enforce any Collateral Certificate or any Receivable.

(c) Due Authorization. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Chase Card Funding and the consummation by Chase Card Funding of the transactions provided for in this Agreement have been duly authorized by Chase Card Funding by all necessary corporate or other action on the part of Chase Card Funding and this Agreement will remain, from the time of its execution, an official record of Chase Card Funding.

(d) No Conflict. The execution and delivery by Chase Card Funding of this Agreement and the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the fulfillment of the terms hereof applicable to Chase Card Funding, will not conflict with, result in any breach of any of the material terms and provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a material default under, any indenture, contract, agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument to which Chase Card Funding is a party or by which it or its properties are bound.

(e) No Proceedings. There are no proceedings or investigations, pending or, to the best knowledge of Chase Card Funding, threatened against Chase Card Funding before any Governmental Authority (i) asserting the invalidity of this Agreement, (ii) seeking to prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iii) seeking any determination or ruling that, in the reasonable judgment of Chase Card Funding, would materially and adversely affect the performance by Chase Card Funding of its obligations under this Agreement, (iv) seeking any determination or ruling that would materially and adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Agreement or (v) seeking to affect adversely the income tax attributes of Chase Card Funding under the United States federal or any state income tax systems.

(f) All Consents. All appraisals, authorizations, consents, orders or other actions of any Person or of any Governmental Authority required in connection with the execution and delivery by Chase Card Funding of this Agreement and the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by Chase Card Funding have been duly obtained, effected or given and are in full force and effect.

(g) No Violation. The execution and delivery of this Agreement, the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and the fulfillment of the terms hereof will not conflict with or violate any Requirements of Law applicable to Chase Card Funding.

Section 2.06. Transfer of Ineligible Receivables and Ineligible Collateral Certificates.

(a) Automatic Removal. With respect to Receivables or Collateral Certificates, in the event that:

(i) any representation or warranty contained in subsection 2.04(a)(v) is not accurate in any material respect as of the date specified therein, or in the event that a Receivable is not an Eligible Receivable or a Collateral Certificate is not an Eligible Collateral Certificate; or

(ii) with respect to Receivables, JPMCB has taken an action which causes a Receivable to be deemed to be an “instrument” (as defined in the UCC) in contravention of the provisions of subsection 2.08(a);

and as a result of such breach, or as a result of a breach specified in subsection 2.05(a) of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement, Chase Card Funding is required under subsection 2.05(a) of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement to accept reassignment of such Receivable or Collateral Certificate, then JPMCB shall accept reassignment of all applicable Receivables or of the applicable Collateral Certificate on the terms and conditions set forth in subsection 2.06(c).

(b) Removal After Cure Period. In the event any representation or warranty contained in subsection 2.04(a)(iv), (vi), (vii), (ix), (x), (xi), (xii), (xiii), (xiv), (xv) or (xvi) is not accurate in any material respect as of the date specified therein with respect to (x) any Collateral Certificate and such breach has a material adverse effect on the Collateral Certificate such that Chase Card Funding’s rights in, to or under such Collateral Certificate or its proceeds are impaired or the proceeds of such Collateral Certificate are not available for any reason to Chase Card Funding or (y) any Receivable or the related Account and such breach has a material adverse effect on the Receivable such that as a result of the breach the Receivable is charged off as uncollectible, Chase Card Funding’s rights in, to or under such Receivable or its proceeds are impaired or the proceeds of such Receivable are not available for any reason to Chase Card Funding, or if Chase Card Funding is required to accept reassignment of an Ineligible Collateral

Certificate or Ineligible Receivable in accordance with subsection 2.05(b) of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement then, unless cured within the period determined pursuant to subsection 2.05(b) of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement, JPMCB shall accept reassignment of the Ineligible Collateral Certificate or of the Ineligible Receivable, as the case may be, on the terms and conditions set forth in subsection 2.06(c).

(c) Procedures for Removal. When the provisions of subsection 2.06(a) or (b) require (i) removal of a Collateral Certificate, Chase Card Funding shall deliver such Collateral Certificate (such Collateral Certificate, an “Ineligible Collateral Certificate”) to JPMCB with a valid assignment in the name of JPMCB for cancellation by JPMCB or (ii) removal of a Receivable, JPMCB shall accept reassignment of such Receivable (each such Receivable, an “Ineligible Receivable”) and shall pay for such reassigned Collateral Certificate or Receivable by paying to Chase Card Funding an amount equal to the unpaid balance of such Collateral Certificate or Receivable in accordance with Section 3.02.

Upon reassignment of any Ineligible Collateral Certificate or Ineligible Receivable, Chase Card Funding shall automatically and without further action be deemed to transfer, assign, set over and otherwise convey to JPMCB or its designee, without recourse, representation or warranty, all the right, title and interest of Chase Card Funding in and to such Ineligible Collateral Certificate or Ineligible Receivable, all Interchange and Recoveries related to any such Receivable, all monies and amounts due or to become due and all proceeds thereof and such reassigned Ineligible Collateral Certificate or Ineligible Receivable shall be treated by Chase Card Funding as collected in full as of the date on which it was transferred. The obligation of JPMCB to accept reassignment of any such Ineligible Collateral Certificate or Ineligible Receivable, and to make the payment as provided in this subsection 2.06(c), shall constitute the sole remedy respecting the event giving rise to such obligation available to Chase Card Funding. Chase Card Funding shall execute such documents and instruments of transfer or reassignment and take such other actions as shall reasonably be requested and provided by JPMCB to effect the conveyance of such Ineligible Collateral Certificate or Ineligible Receivable pursuant to this subsection 2.06(c), but only upon receipt of an Officer’s Certificate from JPMCB that states that all conditions set forth in Section 2.05 of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement have been satisfied.

Section 2.07. Reassignment of Collateral. In the event any representation or warranty of JPMCB set forth in subsection 2.03(a) or (c) or subsection 2.04(a)(i), (ii), (iii) or (viii) is not accurate in any material respect and such breach has a material adverse effect on the Receivables designated for inclusion in Asset Pool One or a particular Collateral Certificate transferred to Chase Card Funding by JPMCB and designated for inclusion in Asset Pool One or the availability of the proceeds thereof to Chase Card Funding and Chase Card Funding shall have been directed to accept reassignment of such Receivables and/or any such Collateral Certificate pursuant to Section 2.06 of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement then, JPMCB shall be obligated to accept such reassignment on the terms set forth herein; JPMCB shall pay to Chase Card Funding an amount for such reassigned Receivables or Collateral Certificate equal to the unpaid principal amount of such Receivables or Collateral Certificate in accordance with Section 3.02.

Upon reassignment of the affected Receivables or any affected Collateral Certificate, Chase Card Funding shall automatically and without further action be deemed to transfer, assign, set over and otherwise convey to JPMCB, without recourse, representation or warranty, all the right, title and interest of Chase Card Funding in and to the affected Receivables and the affected Collateral Certificates, all Interchange and Recoveries allocable to such Receivables, all monies due or to become due and all amounts received or receivable with respect thereto, all Collections, and all proceeds (including, without limitation, “proceeds” as defined in the UCC) thereof. Chase Card Funding shall execute such documents and instruments of transfer or assignment and take such other actions as shall reasonably be requested by JPMCB to effect the conveyance of such Receivables or Collateral Certificate and other property pursuant to this Section.

Section 2.08. Covenants of JPMCB. JPMCB hereby covenants that:

(a) Receivables Not To Be Evidenced by Promissory Notes. Except in connection with its enforcement or collection of an Account, JPMCB will take no action to cause any Receivable conveyed by it to Chase Card Funding to be evidenced by any instrument (as defined in the UCC) and if any such Receivable is so evidenced it shall be deemed to be an Ineligible Receivable in accordance with subsection 2.06(a) and shall be reassigned to JPMCB in accordance with subsection 2.06(c). Each Receivable shall be payable pursuant to a contract which does not create a Lien on any goods purchased thereunder. JPMCB will take no action to cause any Receivable to be anything other than an “account” (as defined in the UCC).

(b) Security Interests. Except for the conveyances hereunder, JPMCB will not sell, pledge, assign or transfer to any other Person, or grant, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien on, any Receivable or Collateral Certificate conveyed by it to Chase Card Funding, whether now existing or hereafter created, or any interest therein; JPMCB will immediately notify Chase Card Funding of the existence of any Lien on any Receivable or Collateral Certificate conveyed by it to Chase Card Funding; and JPMCB shall defend the right, title and interest of Chase Card Funding in, to and under the Receivables and any Collateral Certificate, whether now existing or hereafter created, against all claims of third parties claiming through or under JPMCB; provided, however, that nothing in this subsection 2.08(b) shall prevent or be deemed to prohibit JPMCB from suffering to exist upon any of the Receivables any Liens for municipal or other local taxes if such taxes shall not at the time be due and payable or if JPMCB shall currently be contesting the validity thereof in good faith by appropriate proceedings and shall have set aside on its books adequate reserves with respect thereto.

(c) Delivery of Collections. In the event that JPMCB receives Collections, JPMCB agrees to pay the Servicer all such Collections as soon as practicable after receipt thereof.

(d) Notice of Liens. JPMCB shall notify Chase Card Funding promptly after becoming aware of any Lien on any Receivable or Collateral Certificate conveyed by it to Chase Card Funding other than the conveyances hereunder.

(e) Credit Card Agreements and Guidelines. JPMCB, as Account Owner, shall comply with and perform its obligations under the Credit Card Agreements relating to the Accounts and the Credit Card Guidelines and all applicable rules and regulations of the bankcard payment networks or other similar payment systems except insofar as any failure to comply or perform would not materially and adversely affect the rights of Chase Card Funding; provided, however, JPMCB may change the terms and provisions of the applicable Credit Card Agreements or the applicable Credit Card Guidelines in any respect (including the reduction of the required minimum monthly payment, the calculation of the amount, or the timing, of charge-offs and the Periodic Finance Charges and other fees to be assessed thereon) only if such change (i) would not, in the reasonable belief of JPMCB, cause an Early Amortization Event or Event of Default to occur, and (ii) is made applicable to any comparable segment of the revolving credit card accounts owned by JPMCB which have characteristics the same as, or substantially similar to, the Accounts that are the subject of such change, except as otherwise restricted by an endorsement, sponsorship, or other agreement between JPMCB and an unrelated third party or by the terms of the Credit Card Agreements.

Section 2.09. Increases in the Invested Amount of an Existing Collateral Certificate. The Invested Amount of any Collateral Certificate conveyed to Chase Card Funding by JPMCB may be increased by JPMCB on any Business Day pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 2.11 of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement.

Section 2.10. Addition of Collateral.

(a) Required Additions.

(i) If, from time to time, Chase Card Funding becomes obligated to designate Additional Accounts or Additional Collateral Certificates pursuant to subsection 2.12(a)(i) of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement, then Chase Card Funding may, at its option, give JPMCB written notice thereof on or before the third (3rd) Business Day prior to the Addition Date therefor, and, upon receipt of such notice, JPMCB shall on or before the Addition Date, (1) designate Receivables in additional Accounts to be transferred to Chase Card Funding (each, an “Additional Account”), (2) designate one or more additional Collateral Certificates to be transferred to Chase Card Funding (each, an “Additional Collateral Certificate”) or (3) increase the Invested Amount of one or more Collateral Certificates previously conveyed to Chase Card Funding.

(ii) Any Receivables in Additional Accounts or Additional Collateral Certificates designated to be included as Chase Card Funding Assets pursuant to clause (i) above may only be so included if the applicable conditions specified in subsection (c) below have been satisfied.

(b) Permitted Additions.

(i) If, from time to time, Chase Card Funding elects to designate Additional Accounts and/or Additional Collateral Certificates pursuant to subsection 2.12(b) of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement, then Chase Card Funding may, at its option, give JPMCB written notice thereof on or before the fifth (5th) Business Day prior to the Addition Date therefor, and upon receipt of such notice JPMCB may, but shall not be obligated to, (x) designate from time to time Receivables in Additional Accounts to be included as Chase Card Funding Assets, and/or Additional Collateral Certificates to be included as Chase Card Funding

Assets and (y) increase the Invested Amount of a Collateral Certificate previously conveyed to Chase Card Funding. Such additional Collateral shall be transferred to Chase Card Funding on the Addition Date or the Increase Date, as applicable.

(ii) On any Business Day, consideration in the form of cash will be applied in connection with any increase in the Chase Card Funding Assets pursuant to Section 2.09 or this Section 2.10, as applicable.

(c) Conditions to Additions. On each Addition Date with respect to any Additional Accounts and/or Additional Collateral Certificates, the applicable Receivables in Additional Accounts (and such Additional Accounts shall be deemed to be Accounts for purposes of this Agreement) or the applicable Additional Collateral Certificates existing as of the close of business on the applicable Addition Date shall be designated as additional Chase Card Funding Assets, subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions (which shall not apply with respect to any increase in the Invested Amount of any Collateral Certificate previously conveyed to Chase Card Funding except as specified in clause (i) below):

(i) on or before the third (3rd) Business Day prior to the Addition Date or the Increase Date with respect to additions or increases pursuant to subsection 2.10(a) and on or before the fifth (5th) Business Day prior to the Addition Date with respect to additions pursuant to subsection 2.10(b) (the “Notice Date”), JPMCB shall have delivered to Chase Card Funding written notice (unless such notice requirement is otherwise waived) that the Additional Accounts and/or Additional Collateral Certificates will be included in the Chase Card Funding Assets or an increased Invested Amount of a Collateral Certificate previously conveyed to Chase Card Funding will be included in the Chase Card Funding Assets (the latter notice requirement shall only apply to increases made pursuant to subsection 2.10(a)); provided, however, that notice shall be delivered to Chase Card Funding in connection with any increase in the Invested Amount of a Collateral Certificate previously conveyed to Chase Card Funding on or prior to the relevant Increase Date), which notice shall specify, as applicable, (x) the approximate aggregate amount of the Principal Receivables to be conveyed, (y) the Invested Amount of the Collateral Certificates to be conveyed or (z) the amount by which the Invested Amount of a Collateral Certificate previously conveyed to Chase Card Funding is to be increased, as well as the applicable Addition Date or Increase Date and, in connection with the Additional Accounts, the Addition Cut-Off Date;

(ii) JPMCB shall represent and warrant as of the applicable Addition Cut-Off Date, each Additional Account is an Eligible Account;

(iii) JPMCB shall represent and warrant as of the applicable Addition Date, each Additional Collateral Certificate is an Eligible Collateral Certificate;

(iv) on or before the Addition Date with respect to Additional Accounts and the Receivables arising thereunder, JPMCB shall have delivered to Chase Card Funding a written assignment in substantially the form of

Exhibit A-2 (the “Account Assignment”) and, within five (5) Business Days after the Addition Date, or as otherwise agreed between JPMCB and Chase Card Funding, JPMCB shall have delivered to Chase Card Funding, or shall maintain on behalf of Chase Card Funding pursuant to Section 3.08, an accurate list, based on the computer records of JPMCB (in the form of a computer file or such other form as is agreed upon between JPMCB and Chase Card Funding) of all Additional Accounts designated by such Account Assignment, identified by account reference number and the aggregate amount of the Receivables in each Additional Account as of the Addition Cut-Off Date, which list shall, as of such Addition Date, modify and amend and be incorporated into and made a part of such Account Assignment and this Agreement and shall supplement Schedule 2 to this Agreement;

(v) on or before the Addition Date with respect to Additional Collateral Certificates, JPMCB shall have delivered to Chase Card Funding a written assignment in substantially the form of Exhibit A-1 (the “Collateral Certificate Assignment”) and each Collateral Certificate shall be registered in the name of Chase Card Funding;

(vi) as of each of the Addition Cut-Off Date and the Addition Date, no Insolvency Event with respect to the Account Owner, as applicable, or JPMCB shall have occurred nor shall the transfer to Chase Card Funding of the Receivables arising in the Additional Accounts or of the Additional Collateral Certificate have been made in contemplation of the occurrence thereof;

(vii) (A) the acquisition by Chase Card Funding of the Receivables arising in the Additional Accounts or of the Additional Collateral Certificate, (B) the conveyance of such Receivables by Chase Card Funding to the Issuing Entity and (C) the pledge of such Receivables or Additional Collateral Certificate by the Issuing Entity to the Indenture Trustee, shall not, in the reasonable belief of JPMCB, result in an Adverse Effect under and within the meaning of the Indenture; and

(viii) as of (A) the Addition Cut-Off Date, the Assignment constitutes a valid sale, transfer and assignment to Chase Card Funding of all right, title and interest, whether owned on the Addition Cut-Off Date or thereafter acquired, of JPMCB in and to the Receivables existing on the Addition Cut-Off Date or thereafter created in the Additional Accounts, all Interchange and Recoveries related thereto, all monies due or to become due and all amounts received or receivable with respect thereto and the “proceeds” (including “proceeds” as defined in the applicable UCC) thereof, or, if the Assignment does not constitute a sale of such property, it constitutes a grant of a “security interest” (as defined in the applicable UCC) in such property to Chase Card Funding, which, in the case of existing Receivables and the proceeds thereof, is enforceable upon execution and delivery of the Assignment, and which will be enforceable with respect to such Receivables hereafter created and the proceeds thereof upon such creation or (B) the Addition Date in connection with an Additional Collateral Certificate, the Assignment constitutes either (x) a valid sale, transfer and assignment to Chase Card Funding of all right, title and interest of JPMCB in and to the Additional Collateral Certificate designated on the Addition Date and such Additional Collateral Certificate will be held by Chase Card Funding, free and clear of any Lien of any Person claiming through or under JPMCB or any of its Affiliates, or (y) a valid transfer for security of all of JPMCB's right, title and interest in such Additional Collateral Certificate to Chase Card Funding, which is enforceable upon execution and delivery of the Assignment. Upon the filing of all such appropriate financing statements, Chase Card Funding shall have a first priority perfected security or ownership interest in such property and proceeds; and

(ix) JPMCB shall have delivered to Chase Card Funding an Officer's Certificate, dated the Addition Date, confirming, to the extent applicable, the items set forth in clauses (ii) through (viii) above.

Section 2.11. Removal of Accounts.

(a) Subject to the conditions set forth below, if, from time to time, Chase Card Funding elects to designate Receivables from certain Accounts (the "Removed Accounts") for removal from the Issuing Entity, then JPMCB may, but shall not be obligated to, designate such Receivables from the Removed Accounts for reassignment from Chase Card Funding.

(b) JPMCB shall be permitted to designate and require reassignment to it of Receivables from Removed Accounts only upon satisfaction of the following conditions:

(i) all of the requirements for the removal of Accounts under the Transfer and Servicing Agreement and the Asset Pool One Supplement have been satisfied; and

(ii) on or prior to the Removal Date, JPMCB shall have delivered to Chase Card Funding for execution, a written assignment in substantially the form of Exhibit B (the "Reassignment") and JPMCB shall have, within five (5) Business Days after the Removal Date, or as otherwise agreed upon between JPMCB and Chase Card Funding, delivered to Chase Card Funding, or maintained on behalf of Chase Card Funding pursuant to Section 3.08, an accurate list, based on the computer records of JPMCB (in the form of a computer file or such other form as is agreed upon between JPMCB and Chase Card Funding) of all Removed Accounts designated by such Reassignment, identified by account reference number and the aggregate amount of Receivables outstanding in each Removed Account as of the Removal Cut-Off Date, which list shall, as of the Removal Date, modify and amend and be incorporated into and made a part of this Agreement.

Upon satisfaction of the above conditions, Chase Card Funding shall execute and deliver the Reassignment to JPMCB, and the Receivables from the Removed Accounts shall no longer constitute a part of the Chase Card Funding Assets.

Section 2.12. Account Allocations. In the event that JPMCB is unable for any reason to transfer Receivables to Chase Card Funding in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement (including by reason of the application of the provisions of Section 5.01 or any order of any Governmental Authority (a “Transfer Restriction Event”)), then, in any such event, JPMCB agrees (except as prohibited by any such order) to allocate and pay to Chase Card Funding, after the date of such inability, all Collections, including Collections of Principal Receivables and Finance Charge Receivables transferred to Chase Card Funding prior to the occurrence of such event, and all amounts which would have constituted Collections with respect to Principal Receivables and Finance Charge Receivables but for JPMCB’s inability to transfer such Receivables (up to the lesser of the amount of such insufficiency or an aggregate amount equal to the amount of Principal Receivables and Finance Charge Receivables in Chase Card Funding on such date transferred to Chase Card Funding by JPMCB). For the purpose of the immediately preceding sentence, JPMCB shall treat the first received Collections with respect to the Accounts as allocable to Chase Card Funding until Chase Card Funding shall have been allocated and paid Collections in an amount equal to the aggregate amount of Principal Receivables transferred to Chase Card Funding as of the date of the occurrence of such event. If JPMCB is unable pursuant to any Requirements of Law to allocate Collections as described above, JPMCB agrees that, after the occurrence of such event, payments on each Account with respect to the principal balance of such Account shall be allocated first to the oldest principal balance of such Account. The parties hereto agree that Finance Charge Receivables, whenever created, accrued in respect of Principal Receivables which have been conveyed to Chase Card Funding, or that would have been conveyed to Chase Card Funding but for the above described inability to transfer such Receivables, shall continue to be a part of Chase Card Funding notwithstanding any cessation of the transfer of additional Principal Receivables to Chase Card Funding and Collections with respect thereto shall continue to be allocated and paid in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

CONSIDERATION AND PAYMENT

Section 3.01. Purchase Price.

(a) The “Purchase Price” for the Receivables in the Accounts (including Receivables in Additional Accounts), Additional Collateral Certificates or the increase of the Invested Amount of a Collateral Certificate and the related Chase Card Funding Assets conveyed to Chase Card Funding under this Agreement which come into existence or are conveyed to Chase Card Funding on and after the Closing Date (i) shall be payable on a date (the “Purchase Price Payment Post Date”) mutually agreed to by JPMCB and Chase Card Funding, but no later than the Note Transfer Date following the calendar month in which such Receivables, Additional Collateral Certificate or increase in a Collateral Certificate and the related Chase Card Funding Assets are conveyed by JPMCB to Chase Card Funding and (ii) shall be an amount equal to 100% of the aggregate balance of the Principal Receivables so conveyed or the outstanding principal balance of the Additional Collateral Certificate or the principal balance of the increase in the Invested Amount of an existing Collateral Certificate, as may be adjusted to reflect such factors as JPMCB and Chase Card Funding mutually agree will result in a Purchase Price determined to be the fair market value of such Receivables, Additional Collateral Certificate or increase in a Collateral Certificate and the related Chase Card Funding Assets.

(b) The Purchase Price to be paid by Chase Card Funding shall be paid (i) in cash, (ii) with the consent of Chase Card Funding, by means of capital contributed by JPMCB to Chase Card Funding in the form of a contribution of the Receivables, Additional Collateral Certificate or increase in a Collateral Certificate, (iii) with the consent of JPMCB, by issuance to JPMCB of the Subordinated Note or by increase in the amount outstanding thereunder, or (iv) any combination of the foregoing, in each case in accordance with Section 3.03.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, JPMCB shall not be obligated to continue to sell Receivables or Additional Collateral Certificates or to increase the Investor Amount of an existing Collateral Certificate or to convey other Chase Card Funding Assets to Chase Card Funding to the extent that JPMCB is not paid the Purchase Price therefor as provided herein.

Section 3.02. Adjustments to Purchase Price. The Purchase Price shall be reduced on each Purchase Price Payment Date (a “Purchase Price Adjustment”) with respect to any Receivable conveyed to Chase Card Funding by JPMCB with respect to which during the preceding Monthly Period (a) JPMCB was obligated to accept reassignment pursuant to Section 2.06 or Section 2.07 and (b) any Credit Adjustment was made pursuant to subsection 3.06 of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement. JPMCB agrees that on the Purchase Price Payment Date, JPMCB shall pay or cause to be paid to Chase Card Funding an amount equal to the greater of (i) the amount by which the Purchase Price Adjustment exceeds the unadjusted Purchase Price and (ii) the amount of any Adjustment Payment required to be paid by Chase Card Funding pursuant to Section 3.06.

Section 3.03. Settlement and Ongoing Payment of Purchase Price. Prior to each Purchase Price Payment Date, JPMCB shall deliver a settlement statement (the “Settlement Statement”) to Chase Card Funding, showing (a) the aggregate Purchase Price of Receivables, Additional Collateral Certificates or increases in the invested amount of Collateral Certificates conveyed to Chase Card Funding during the prior Monthly Period, (b) the amount of Purchase Price Adjustments made with respect to such prior Monthly Period pursuant to Section 3.02, including any adjustment to the Purchase Price with respect to such period pursuant to Section 2.06 and (c) the portion thereof paid in cash, the portion represented by an increase in the Subordinated Note and the portion represented by a capital contribution pursuant to subsection 3.01(b). To the extent that Chase Card Funding elects to remit to JPMCB an amount greater than the Purchase Price of such Receivables, net of any Purchase Price Adjustment, JPMCB shall first apply such amount to the payment of the unpaid principal of the Subordinated Note, if any. If, after giving effect to any such payment in respect of the Subordinated Note, JPMCB has received an amount greater than the Purchase Price, net of any Purchase Price Adjustment, JPMCB shall retain such amounts and, at the option of Chase Card Funding (x) issue its note to Chase Card Funding with terms substantially similar to the terms of the Subordinated Note or (y) subject to applicable legal restrictions and internal approvals, elect to treat such amounts as a dividend or return of capital to JPMCB. Subject to the conditions set forth in Section 17 of the LLC Agreement, Chase Card Funding may distribute to JPMCB available cash that has not been reserved for the payment of the Purchase Price and other expenses and liabilities of Chase Card Funding at the times determined by Chase Card Funding in its sole discretion.

Section 3.04. Use of Name, Logo and Marks. JPMCB does hereby grant to Chase Card Funding a non-exclusive license to use the name “JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association” and all related identifying trade or service marks, signs, symbols, logos, designs, servicing software, customer lists and other intangibles in connection with the servicing of the Receivables purchased hereunder. The license granted shall be co-extensive with the term of the Agreement.

Section 3.05. Transfer of Defaulted Accounts. Unless otherwise provided in the Transfer and Servicing Agreement, in consideration of receiving Recoveries as provided in subsection 3.07(a), on the date on which an Account becomes a Defaulted Account, Chase Card Funding shall automatically and without further action or consideration be deemed to transfer, set over, and otherwise convey to JPMCB, without recourse, representation, or warranty, all the right, title and interest of Chase Card Funding in and to the Receivables in such Defaulted Account, all monies due or to become due with respect thereto, all proceeds thereof allocable to Chase Card Funding with respect to such Receivables, excluding Recoveries relating thereto, which shall remain a Chase Card Funding Asset.

Section 3.06. Adjustments for Miscellaneous Credits and Fraudulent Charges. The Servicer shall be obligated to reduce on a net basis for each Monthly Period the aggregate amount of Principal Receivables (a “Credit Adjustment”) with respect to any Principal Receivable (a) which was created in respect of merchandise refused or returned by the Obligor thereunder or as to which the Obligor thereunder has asserted a counterclaim or defense, (b) which is reduced by the Servicer by any rebate, refund, charge-back or adjustment (including Servicer errors) or (c) which was created as a result of a fraudulent or counterfeit charge.

Section 3.07. Recoveries and Interchange.

(a) Recoveries. On or prior to the third Business Day following the end of each Monthly Period, JPMCB shall notify Chase Card Funding of the amount of Recoveries, in respect of Defaulted Accounts, to be included as Collections with respect to the preceding Monthly Period. On the First Note Transfer Date following the applicable Monthly Period, JPMCB, as Servicer, shall deposit into the Collection Account, in immediately available funds, the amount of Recoveries, in respect of Defaulted Accounts, to be so included as Collections with respect to the preceding Monthly Period; provided, however, that such deposit needs to be made only to the extent that such funds are required to be retained in the applicable Bank Accounts for the benefit of any Series, Class or Tranche of Notes pursuant to the provisions of Article III of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement, the Asset Pool One Supplement or the related Indenture Supplement provided that any such amount that is not so deposited shall be paid to Chase Card Funding.

(b) Interchange. On or prior to the third Business Day following the end of each Monthly Period, each Account Owner shall notify the Servicer and Chase Card Funding of the Interchange Amount, if any, which is required to be included as Finance Charge Collections with respect to the preceding Monthly Period. On the First Note Transfer Date following the applicable Monthly Period, each Account Owner shall pay to the Servicer and the Servicer shall deposit into the Collection Account, in immediately available funds, the Interchange Amount to be so included as Finance Charge Collections with respect to the preceding Monthly Period; provided, however, that such deposit needs to be made only to the extent that such funds are required to be retained in the applicable Bank Accounts for the benefit of any Series, Class or Tranche of Notes pursuant to the provisions of Article III of the Transfer and Servicing Agreement, the Asset Pool One Supplement or the related Indenture Supplement and any such amount that is not so deposited shall be paid to Chase Card Funding.

Section 3.08. Computer Files and Records. JPMCB agrees to maintain the computer files and other records of the Accounts and Receivables arising in the Accounts on behalf of Chase Card Funding in a manner consistent with the provisions in this Agreement and the Transfer and Servicing Agreement. With respect to such maintenance of the computer files and other records on behalf of Chase Card Funding, Chase Card Funding acknowledges and agrees that JPMCB is acting solely in the capacity of an arm's length contractual counterparty in consideration of the mutual terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which are evidenced by the execution of this Agreement by each of Chase Card Funding and JPMCB.

ARTICLE IV

LIABILITY OF JPMCB

Section 4.01. Liability of JPMCB. JPMCB shall be liable for all its obligations, covenants, representations and warranties arising under or related to this Agreement. Section 4.02. Merger or Consolidation of, or Assumption of the Obligations of, JPMCB.

(a) JPMCB shall not dissolve, liquidate, consolidate with or merge into any other Person or convey, transfer or sell its properties and assets substantially as an entirety to any Person unless:

(i) the Person formed by such consolidation or into which JPMCB is merged or the Person which acquires by conveyance, transfer or sale the properties and assets of JPMCB substantially as an entirety shall be, if JPMCB is not the surviving entity, organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, and shall be a savings association, a national banking association, a bank or other entity which is not eligible to be a debtor in a case under Title 11 of the United States Code or is a special purpose entity whose powers and activities are limited and, if JPMCB is not the surviving entity, shall expressly assume, by an agreement supplemental hereto, executed and delivered to Chase Card Funding, the performance of every covenant and obligation of JPMCB hereunder and shall benefit from all the rights granted to JPMCB hereunder; and

FORM OF ASSIGNMENT OF AN ADDITIONAL COLLATERAL CERTIFICATE
(as required by subsection 2.10(c)(v) of the Receivables Purchase Agreement)

ASSIGNMENT NO. __ OF AN ADDITIONAL COLLATERAL CERTIFICATE, dated as of _____, by and between JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, a national banking association (the “Bank”), and CHASE CARD FUNDING LLC (“Chase Card Funding”), pursuant to the Agreement referred to below.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, JPMCB and Chase Card Funding are parties to the Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement, dated as of December 16, 2024 (hereinafter as such agreement may have been, or may from time to time be, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified, the “Agreement”);

WHEREAS, pursuant to subsection 2.10(a) or 2.10(b) of the Agreement, JPMCB wishes to designate an Additional Collateral Certificate and to convey hereby such Additional Collateral Certificate (as such term is defined in the Agreement) to Chase Card Funding; and

WHEREAS, Chase Card Funding is willing to accept such designation and conveyance subject to the terms and conditions hereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, JPMCB and Chase Card Funding hereby agree as follows:

1. Defined Terms. All capitalized terms used herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement unless otherwise defined herein or, if not defined therein, in the Indenture (as defined in the Agreement).

“Addition Date” shall mean, with respect to the Additional Collateral Certificate designated on Schedule 1 hereto, _____.

“Notice Date” shall mean, with respect to the Additional Collateral Certificate designated on Schedule 1 hereto, _____ which shall be a date on or prior to the third (3rd) Business Day prior to the Addition Date with respect to additions pursuant to subsection 2.10(a) of the Agreement and the fifth (5th) Business Day prior to the Addition Date with respect to additions pursuant to subsection 2.10(b) of the Agreement.

2. Conveyance of Additional Collateral Certificates.

(a) JPMCB does hereby sell, transfer, assign, set over and otherwise convey, without recourse except as set forth in the Agreement, to Chase Card Funding, all its right, title and interest in, to and under the Additional Collateral Certificate existing as of the close of business on the Addition Date. The foregoing does not constitute and is not intended to result in the creation or assumption by Chase Card Funding of any obligation of JPMCB or any other Person in connection with the Additional Collateral Certificate or under any agreement or instrument relating thereto, including any obligation to Obligors, merchant banks, merchants clearance systems, VISA®, MasterCard<sup>®1</sup> or insurers.

(b) If necessary, JPMCB agrees to record and file, at its own expense, financing statements (and continuation statements when applicable) with respect to the Additional Collateral Certificate existing on the Addition Date meeting the requirements of applicable state law in such manner and in such jurisdictions as are necessary to perfect, and maintain perfection of, the sale and assignment of its interest in such Additional Collateral Certificate to Chase Card Funding, and to deliver a file-stamped copy of each such financing statement or other evidence of such filing to Chase Card Funding on or prior to the Addition Date. Chase Card Funding shall not be under any obligation whatsoever to file such financing or continuation statements or to make any other filing under the UCC in connection with such sale and assignment.

(c) JPMCB does hereby grant to Chase Card Funding a security interest in all of its right, title and interest, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, in and to the Additional Collateral Certificate designated for sale on the Addition Date. This Assignment constitutes a security agreement under the UCC.

(d) The parties hereto agree that all transfers of Additional Collateral Certificates to Chase Card Funding pursuant to this Assignment are subject to, and shall be treated in accordance with, the Delaware Act and each of the parties hereto agrees that this Assignment has been entered into by the parties hereto in express reliance upon the Delaware Act. For purposes of complying with the requirements of the Delaware Act, each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that any property, assets or rights purported to be transferred, in whole or in part, by JPMCB pursuant to this Assignment shall be deemed to no longer be the property, assets or rights of JPMCB. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that each such transfer is occurring in connection with a “securitization transaction” within the meaning of the Delaware Act.

3. Representations and Warranties of JPMCB. JPMCB hereby represents and warrants to Chase Card Funding, as of the Addition Date, that:

(a) Legal, Valid and Binding Obligation. This Assignment constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of JPMCB enforceable against JPMCB in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by (x) applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium or other laws and legal principles affecting creditors’ rights generally from time to time in effect, (y) the rights of creditors of depository institutions the accounts of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and (z) general equitable principles, whether applied in an action at law or in equity);

(b) Eligibility of Additional Collateral Certificate. As of the Addition Date, the Additional Collateral Certificate designated hereby is an Eligible Collateral Certificate;

(c) Insolvency. As of the Addition Date, no Insolvency Event with respect to JPMCB has occurred and the transfer by JPMCB of the Additional Collateral Certificates to Chase Card Funding has not been made in contemplation of the occurrence thereof;

(d) No Adverse Effect. The acquisition by Chase Card Funding of the Additional Collateral Certificate shall not, in the reasonable belief of JPMCB, result in an Adverse Effect;

(e) Security Interest. This Assignment constitutes either (i) a valid sale, transfer and assignment to Chase Card Funding of all right, title and interest of JPMCB in and to the Additional Collateral Certificate designated on the Addition Date and such Additional Collateral Certificate will be held by Chase Card Funding free and clear of any Lien of any Person claiming through or under JPMCB or any of its Affiliates, or (ii) a valid transfer for security of all of JPMCB's right, title and interest in and to such Additional Collateral Certificate to Chase Card Funding, which is enforceable upon execution and delivery of this Assignment. Upon the filing of all appropriate financing statements, Chase Card Funding shall have a first priority perfected security or ownership interest in such property and proceeds;

(f) No Conflict. The execution and delivery by JPMCB of this Assignment, the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Assignment and the fulfillment of the terms hereof applicable to JPMCB, will not conflict with or violate any Requirements of Law applicable to JPMCB or conflict with, result in any breach of any of the material terms and provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a material default under, any indenture, contract, agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument to which JPMCB is a party or by which it or its properties are bound;

(g) No Proceedings. There are no proceedings or investigations pending or, to the best knowledge of JPMCB, threatened against JPMCB before any court, regulatory body, administrative agency or other tribunal or governmental instrumentality (i) asserting the invalidity of this Assignment, (ii) seeking to prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Assignment, (iii) seeking any determination or ruling that, in the reasonable judgment of JPMCB, would materially and adversely affect the performance by JPMCB of its obligations under this Assignment or (iv) seeking any determination or ruling that would materially and adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Assignment; and

(h) All Consents. All authorizations, consents, orders or approvals of any court or other governmental authority required to be obtained by JPMCB in connection with the execution and delivery of this Assignment by JPMCB and the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Assignment by JPMCB, have been obtained.

4. Conditions Precedent. The conveyance of an Additional Collateral Certificate pursuant to Section 2 of this Assignment and the amendment of the Agreement pursuant to Section 5 of this Assignment are each subject to the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in subsection 2.10(c) of the Agreement on or prior to the dates specified in such subsection 2.10(c). For purposes of subsection 2.10(c)(i) of the Agreement, "Notice Date" shall have the meaning specified in Section 1 hereof. With respect to the condition specified in subsection 2.10(c)(ix) of the Agreement, JPMCB shall have delivered to Chase Card Funding, on or prior to the date hereof, a certificate of a Vice President or more senior officer substantially in the form of Schedule 2 hereto, certifying that (a) all requirements set forth in subsection 2.10(c) of the Agreement for designating and conveying Additional Collateral Certificates have been satisfied and (b) each of the representations and warranties made by JPMCB in Section 3 of this Assignment is accurate as of the Addition Date. The other parties hereto may conclusively rely on such Officer's Certificate, shall have no duty to make inquiries with regard to the matters set forth therein, and shall incur no liability in so relying.

5. Amendment of the Receivables Purchase Agreement. The Agreement is hereby amended to provide that all references therein to the "Receivables Purchase Agreement," to "this Agreement" and to "herein" shall be deemed from and after the Addition Date to be a dual reference to the Agreement as supplemented by this Assignment and all references therein to Additional Collateral Certificates shall be deemed to include the Additional Collateral Certificate designated hereby. Except as expressly amended hereby, all of the representations, warranties, terms, covenants and conditions of the Agreement shall remain unamended and shall continue to be, and shall remain, in full force and effect in accordance with its terms and except as expressly provided herein shall not constitute or be deemed to constitute a waiver of compliance with or a consent to noncompliance with any term or provision of the Agreement.

6. Counterparts. This Assignment may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be considered an original, but all of which together will constitute one agreement. This Assignment shall be valid, binding, and enforceable against a party only when executed by an authorized individual on behalf of the party by means of (i) an electronic signature that complies with the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act ("E-SIGN"), state enactments of the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act ("UETA"), and/or any other relevant electronic signatures law including any relevant provisions of the UCC (collectively, "Signature Law"), in each case to the extent applicable; (ii) an original manual signature; or (iii) a faxed, scanned, or photocopied manual signature. Each electronic signature or faxed, scanned, or photocopied manual signature shall for all purposes have the same validity, legal effect, and admissibility in evidence as an original manual signature. Each party hereto shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon, and shall have no liability with respect to, any electronic signature or faxed, scanned, or photocopied manual signature of any other party and shall have no duty to investigate, confirm or otherwise verify the validity or authenticity thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any notice provided for in this Agreement or any instrument required or permitted to be delivered hereunder, any party hereto receiving or relying upon such notice or instrument shall be entitled to request execution thereof by original manual signature as a condition to the effectiveness thereof.

7. GOVERNING LAW. THIS ASSIGNMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAW PROVISIONS, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

8. Removal Upon Breach. In the event of a breach of the warranty set forth in subsection 3(b) other than a breach or event set forth in subsection 2.06(a) of the Agreement, if as a result of such breach the related Additional Collateral Certificate is no longer an Eligible

Collateral Certificate or Chase Card Funding's rights in, to or under such Additional Collateral Certificate or its proceeds are impaired, then, upon the satisfaction of all terms and conditions set forth in subsection 2.06(b) of the Agreement, JPMCB shall accept reassignment of such Additional Collateral Certificate; provided, however, that no such removal shall be required to be made if, on any day within such applicable period, such representations and warranties with respect to such Additional Collateral Certificate shall then be accurate in all material respects as if such Additional Collateral Certificate had been transferred to Chase Card Funding on such day.

“Addition Date” shall mean, with respect to the Additional Accounts designated on Schedule 1 hereto, _____.

“Notice Date” shall mean, with respect to the Additional Accounts designated on Schedule 1 hereto, _____ which shall be a date on or prior to the third (3rd) Business Day prior to the Addition Date with respect to additions pursuant to subsection 2.10(a) of the Agreement and the fifth (5th) Business Day prior to the Addition Date with respect to additions pursuant to subsection 2.10(b) of the Agreement.

2. Designation of Additional Accounts. No later than five (5) Business Days after the Addition Date, JPMCB shall deliver to Chase Card Funding, or shall maintain on behalf of Chase Card Funding, an accurate list (in the form of a computer file or such other form as is agreed upon between JPMCB and Chase Card Funding) of each VISA® and MasterCard<sup>®2</sup> account which, as of the Addition Date, shall be deemed to be an Additional Account, identified by account reference number and the aggregate amount of the Receivables in each such Additional Account as of the Addition Cut-Off Date, which list shall be marked as Schedule 1 to this Assignment and, as of the Addition Date, shall modify and amend and be incorporated into and made part of the Agreement and shall supplement Schedule 2 to the Agreement.

3. Conveyance of Receivables.

(a) JPMCB does hereby sell, transfer and assign to Chase Card Funding all right, title and interest, whether owned on the Addition Cut-Off Date or thereafter acquired, of JPMCB in and to the Receivables existing on the Addition Cut-Off Date or thereafter created in the Additional Accounts, all Interchange and Recoveries related thereto, all monies due or to become due and all amounts received or receivable with respect thereto and all proceeds (including “proceeds” as defined in the applicable UCC) thereof. This subsection 3(a) does not constitute and is not intended to result in the creation or assumption by Chase Card Funding of any obligation of JPMCB or any other Person in connection with the Accounts or the Receivables or under any agreement or instrument relating thereto, including any obligation to Obligors, merchant banks, merchants clearance systems, VISA®, MasterCard® or insurers.

(b) JPMCB hereby grants to Chase Card Funding a security interest in all of its right, title and interest, whether owned on the Addition Cut-Off Date or thereafter acquired, of JPMCB in and to the Receivables existing on the Addition Cut-Off Date or thereafter created in the Additional Accounts, all Interchange and Recoveries related thereto and all monies due or to become due and all amounts received or receivable with respect thereto and the “proceeds” (including “proceeds” as defined in the applicable UCC) thereof to secure a loan in an amount equal to the unpaid principal amount of the Notes issued pursuant to the Indenture, the Asset Pool One Supplement and the applicable Indenture Supplement and accrued and unpaid interest with respect thereto. This Assignment constitutes a security agreement under the UCC.

(c) If necessary, JPMCB agrees to record and file, at its own expense, financing statements (and continuation statements when applicable) with respect to the Receivables in Additional Accounts existing on the Addition Cut-Off Date and thereafter created meeting the requirements of applicable state law in such manner and in such jurisdictions as are necessary to perfect, and maintain perfection of, the sale and assignment of its interest in such Receivables to Chase Card Funding, and to deliver a file-stamped copy of each such financing statement or other evidence of such filing to Chase Card Funding on or prior to the Addition Date. Chase Card Funding shall be under no obligation whatsoever to file such financing or continuation statements or to make any other filing under the UCC in connection with such sale and assignment.

(d) In connection with such transfers, JPMCB further agrees, at its own expense, on or prior to the date of this Assignment, to indicate in the appropriate computer files that Receivables created in connection with the Additional Accounts and designated hereby have been conveyed to Chase Card Funding pursuant to this Assignment.

(e) The parties hereto agree that all transfers of Receivables to Chase Card Funding pursuant to this Assignment are subject to, and shall be treated in accordance with, the Delaware Act and each of the parties hereto agrees that this Assignment has been entered into by the parties hereto in express reliance upon the Delaware Act. For purposes of complying with the requirements of the Delaware Act, each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that any property, assets or rights purported to be transferred, in whole or in part, by JPMCB pursuant to this Assignment shall be deemed to no longer be the property, assets or rights of JPMCB. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that each such transfer is occurring in connection with a “securitization transaction” within the meaning of the Delaware Act.

4. Representations and Warranties of JPMCB.

(a) Legal, Valid and Binding Obligation. This Assignment constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of JPMCB enforceable against JPMCB in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by (x) applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium or other laws and legal principles affecting creditors’ rights generally from time to time in effect, (y) the rights of creditors of depository institutions the accounts of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and (z) general equitable principles, whether applied in an action at law or in equity);

(b) Eligibility of Accounts. As of the Addition Cut-Off Date, each Additional Account designated hereby was an Eligible Account;

(c) Insolvency. As of each of the Addition Cut-Off Date and the Addition Date, no Insolvency Event with respect to JPMCB has occurred and the transfer by JPMCB of Receivables arising in the Additional Accounts to Chase Card Funding has not been made in contemplation of the occurrence thereof;

(d) No Adverse Effect. The acquisition by Chase Card Funding of the Receivables arising in the Additional Accounts shall not, in the reasonable belief of JPMCB, result in an Adverse Effect;

(e) Security Interest. This Assignment constitutes a valid sale, transfer and assignment to Chase Card Funding of all right, title and interest, whether owned on the Addition Cut-Off Date or thereafter acquired, of JPMCB in and to the Receivables existing on the Addition Cut-Off Date or thereafter created in the Additional Accounts, all Interchange and Recoveries related thereto, all monies due or to become due and all amounts received or receivable with respect thereto and the “proceeds” (including “proceeds” as defined in the applicable UCC) thereof, or, if this Assignment does not constitute a sale of such property, the Agreement as amended by this Assignment constitutes a grant of a “security interest” (as defined in the applicable UCC) in such property to Chase Card Funding, which, in the case of existing Receivables and the proceeds thereof, is enforceable upon execution and delivery of this Assignment, and which will be enforceable with respect to such Receivables hereafter created and the proceeds thereof upon such creation. Upon the filing of the financing statements described in Section 3 of this

Assignment and, in the case of the Receivables hereafter created and the proceeds thereof, upon the creation thereof, Chase Card Funding shall have a first priority perfected security or ownership interest in such property;

(f) No Conflict. The execution and delivery by JPMCB of this Assignment, the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Assignment and the fulfillment of the terms hereof applicable to JPMCB, will not conflict with or violate any Requirements of Law applicable to JPMCB or conflict with, result in any breach of any of the material terms and provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a material default under, any indenture, contract, agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument to which JPMCB is a party or by which it or its properties are bound;

(g) No Proceedings. There are no proceedings or investigations, pending or, to the best knowledge of JPMCB, threatened against JPMCB before any court, regulatory body, administrative agency or other tribunal or governmental instrumentality (i) asserting the invalidity of this Assignment, (ii) seeking to prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by this Assignment, (iii) seeking any determination or ruling that, in the reasonable judgment of JPMCB, would materially and adversely affect the performance by JPMCB of its obligations under this Assignment or (iv) seeking any determination or ruling that would materially and adversely affect the validity or enforceability of this Assignment; and

(h) All Consents. All authorizations, consents, orders or approvals of any court or other governmental authority required to be obtained by JPMCB in connection with the execution and delivery of this Assignment by JPMCB and the performance of the transactions contemplated by this Assignment by JPMCB, have been obtained.

5. Conditions Precedent. The designation of Additional Accounts pursuant to Section 2 of this Assignment, the conveyance of Receivables pursuant to Section 3 of this Assignment and the amendment of the Agreement pursuant to Section 6 hereof are each subject to the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set forth in subsection 2.10(c) of the Agreement on or prior to the dates specified in such subsection 2.10(c), except to the extent any such conditions have been waived. For purposes of subsection 2.10(c)(i) of the Agreement, “Notice Date” shall have the meaning specified in Section 1 hereof. With respect to the condition specified in subsection 2.10(c)(ix) of the Agreement, JPMCB shall have delivered to Chase Card Funding, on or prior to the date hereof, a certificate of a Vice President or more senior officer substantially in the form of Schedule 2 hereto, certifying that (a) all requirements set forth in subsection 2.10(c) of the Agreement for designating and conveying Receivables in Additional Accounts have been satisfied or waived and (b) each of the representations and warranties made by JPMCB in Section 4 of this Assignment is accurate as of the Addition Date. Chase Card Funding may conclusively rely on such Officer’s Certificate, shall have no duty to make inquiries with regard to the matters set forth therein, and shall incur no liability in so relying.

6. Amendment of the Receivables Purchase Agreement. The Agreement is hereby amended to provide that all references therein to the “Receivables Purchase Agreement,” to “this Agreement” and to “herein” shall be deemed from and after the Addition Date to be a dual reference to the Agreement as supplemented by this Assignment. All references therein to Additional Accounts shall be deemed to include the Additional Accounts designated hereby and all references therein to Receivables shall be deemed to include the Receivables conveyed hereby. Except as expressly amended hereby, all of the representations, warranties, terms, covenants and conditions of the Agreement shall remain unamended and shall continue to be, and shall remain, in full force and effect in accordance with its terms and except as expressly provided herein shall not constitute or be deemed to constitute a waiver of compliance with or a consent to noncompliance with any term or provision of the Agreement.

7. Counterparts. This Assignment may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be considered an original, but all of which together will constitute one agreement. This Assignment shall be valid, binding, and enforceable against a party only when executed by an authorized individual on behalf of the party by means of (i) an electronic signature that complies with the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (“E-SIGN”), state enactments of the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (“UETA”), and/or any other relevant electronic signatures law including any relevant provisions of the UCC (collectively, “Signature Law”), in each case to the extent applicable; (ii) an original manual signature; or (iii) a faxed, scanned, or photocopied manual signature. Each electronic signature or faxed, scanned, or photocopied manual signature shall for all purposes have the same validity, legal effect, and admissibility in evidence as an original manual signature. Each party hereto shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon, and shall have no liability with respect to, any electronic signature or faxed, scanned, or photocopied manual signature of any other party and shall have no duty to investigate, confirm or otherwise verify the validity or authenticity thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any notice provided for in this Agreement or any instrument required or permitted to be delivered hereunder, any party hereto receiving or relying upon such notice or instrument shall be entitled to request execution thereof by original manual signature as a condition to the effectiveness thereof.

8. GOVERNING LAW. THIS ASSIGNMENT SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAW PROVISIONS, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

9. Removal Upon Breach. In the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth in Section 4 hereof other than a breach or event set forth in subsection 2.06(a) of the Agreement, if as a result of such breach the related Receivable is no longer an Eligible Receivable or Chase Card Funding’s rights in, to or under such Receivable or its proceeds are impaired, then, upon the satisfaction of all terms and conditions set forth in Section 2.06 of the Agreement, such Receivable shall be removed from Chase Card Funding on the terms and conditions set forth in subsection 2.06(b) of the Agreement and JPMCB shall accept reassignment of such Receivable; provided, however, that no such removal shall be required to be made if, on any day within such applicable period, such representations and warranties with respect to such Receivable shall then be accurate in all material respects as if such Receivable had been designated for inclusion in Chase Card Funding on such day.

FORM OF REVOLVING NOTE

REVOLVING NOTE

This Revolving Note, dated as of _____, ____, by CHASE CARD FUNDING LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Borrower”) to JPMORGAN CHASE BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, a national banking association (the “Lender”).

The Lender and the Borrower have entered into an Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement (the “Receivables Purchase Agreement”) dated as of December 16, 2024, providing for the purchase from time to time by the Borrower of (1) certain receivables existing or arising in designated revolving credit card accounts (the “Receivables”) and (2) a Collateral Certificate. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or unless the context otherwise requires, capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Receivables Purchase Agreement.

1. The Note. For value received, the Borrower hereby promises to pay to the order of the Lender at its offices at 201 North Walnut Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801, the aggregate principal amount of all Loans (as hereinafter defined) made by the Lender to the Borrower under the terms of this Note as remains unpaid, as maintained by the Lender, and any continuations thereof, on the day which is one year and a day after the payment in full of the Transferor Amount and all Invested Amounts, or as agreed between the Borrower and the Lender (the “Maturity Date”). The Borrower shall pay interest on the unpaid principal amount of the Loans as provided herein.

2. The Loans.

(a) From time to time between the date of this Note and the Maturity Date, and subject to the restrictions on lending under this Note contained in the Receivables Purchase Agreement, the Lender may lend to the Borrower such sums (each a “Loan” and, together, the “Loans”), as provided herein.

(b) The obligation of the Borrower to repay the aggregate unpaid principal amount of the Loans outstanding shall be evidenced by this Note and the schedule attached hereto. The Lender is hereby authorized to endorse on the schedule or on a continuation of such schedule, appropriate notations regarding each Loan evidenced by this Note; provided, however, that the failure to make, or error in making, any notation shall not limit or otherwise affect the obligation of the Borrower hereunder.

(c) When the Borrower requests a Loan in connection with the acquisition of any Receivables, the Borrower shall notify the Lender specifying the amount, the date on which such Loan is requested and the tenor of such Loan. All such notices shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if personally delivered, mailed by registered mail with return receipt requested, sent by electronic mail or transmitted via the intranet funding request processing system maintained by the JPMorgan Chase & Co corporate treasury funding desk.

3. Interest. Each Loan shall bear interest based on the prevailing rate for JPMorgan Chase & Co. inter-company debt of similar risk and tenor as provided by the JPMorgan Chase & Co. corporate treasury funding desk. Interest shall be due and payable upon maturity of the loan or on such dates as determined by the Lender (each, an “Interest Payment Date”).

4. Payment. Subject to the limitations on payment set forth in Section 5 hereof, the Lender shall be entitled to and may require the Borrower to, make a payment of the loans, in whole or in part, on any day upon providing at least one (1) Business Day’s prior written notice to the Borrower or such other period agreed to by the Lender. The Borrower has the right to repay the unpaid balance of the Loans in full or in part at any time without penalty.

5. Use of Proceeds. The Loans provided pursuant to this Note may be used from time to time to pay the purchase price for certain Receivables, Collateral Certificates and increases in the invested amount of Collateral Certificates and also may be used to pay the purchase price for a portion of the Initial Transferred Assets.

6. Subordination of Obligations. The Lender irrevocably agrees that the obligations of the Borrower under this Note with respect to the payment of principal and interest are and shall be fully and irrevocably subordinated in right of payment and subject to the prior payment or provision for payment in full of all Senior Indebtedness (as defined below), that such obligations may only be satisfied to the extent of cash or other assets of the Borrower then available for such purpose after giving effect to all required payments in respect of Senior Indebtedness, and that such obligations shall not constitute a claim against the Borrower at any time that, and for so long as, cash or such other assets available therefor are insufficient. “Senior Indebtedness” means the principal of and interest, including post-default interest, on any indebtedness of or guaranteed by the Borrower, if any, whether outstanding or guaranteed on the date hereof or thereafter created, incurred, assumed or guaranteed for money borrowed or for the deferred purchase price of property purchased by any person; provided, however, that Senior Indebtedness shall not include any obligation of or guarantee by the Borrower, whether outstanding or guaranteed on the date hereof or thereafter created, incurred, assumed or guaranteed that by agreement, operation of law or by its terms is subordinated in right of payment to this Note; provided, further, that the Borrower, as a bankruptcy remote special purpose entity, is not expected to incur or guarantee any indebtedness. In the event of the appointment of a receiver or trustee of the Borrower or in the event of its insolvency, bankruptcy, assignment for the benefit of creditors or reorganization, whether or not pursuant to the bankruptcy laws, or any other marshalling of the assets and liabilities of the Borrower, the Lender shall not be entitled to participate or share, ratably or otherwise, in the distribution of the assets of the Borrower until all claims of all other present and future creditors of the Borrower, whose claims are senior hereto, have been fully satisfied, or provisions have been made therefor.

7. Acceleration Upon Certain Events. The Borrower’s obligation to pay the unpaid principal amount hereof shall forthwith mature, together with interest accrued thereon, in the event of any receivership, insolvency, liquidation, bankruptcy, assignment for the benefit of creditors, reorganization whether or not pursuant to bankruptcy laws, or any other marshalling of the assets and liabilities of the Borrower, but payment of the same shall remain subordinated as hereinabove set forth.

8. Effect of Default. Default in any payment hereunder, including the payment of interest, shall not accelerate the maturity hereof except as herein specifically provided, and the obligation to make payments shall remain subordinated as hereinabove set forth.

9. Upon Whom Binding. The provisions of this Note shall be binding upon the Lender, its successors and assigns and upon the Borrower.

10. GOVERNING LAW. THIS NOTE SHALL BE CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO ITS CONFLICT OF LAW PROVISIONS, AND THE OBLIGATIONS, RIGHTS AND REMEDIES OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER SHALL BE DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SUCH LAWS.

11. Cancellation. This Note may only be cancelled with the consent of both the Lender and the Borrower.

12. No Security. The Lender agrees that it is not taking and will not take or assert as security for the payment of this Note any security interest in or lien upon, whether created by contract, statute or otherwise, any property of the Borrower or any property in which the Borrower may have an interest, which is or at any time may be in possession or subject to the control of the Lender. The Lender hereby waives, and further agrees that it will not seek to obtain payment of this Note in whole or in any part by exercising any right of set-off it may assert or possess whether created by contract, statute or otherwise. Any agreement between the Borrower and the Lender (whether in the nature of a general loan and collateral agreement, a security or pledge agreement or otherwise), shall be deemed amended hereby to the extent necessary so as not to be inconsistent with the provisions of this Note.

13. Assignment. This Note shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and each of their respective successors and assigns. The Borrower may not assign or transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Lender.

14. No Bankruptcy Petition Against the Borrower. The Lender (in its capacity as Lender, but in no other capacity), by its acceptance of this Note, hereby covenants and agrees that, prior to the Maturity Date, it will not institute against or join any other Person in instituting against the Borrower any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency or liquidation proceedings or other similar proceeding under the laws of the United States or any state of the United States.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has caused this Note to be executed by its officers or employees thereunto duly authorized and directed by appropriate corporate authority.
